

ROBERTO DEL CUETO
Deputy Governor, Banco de México

Education

- Escuela Libre de Derecho (1969-1974). Thesis exam presented on December 16, 1975.

Current employment

- Banco de México, Deputy Governor (2007 to date).

Past employment

- President of the National Banking and Securities Commission (2007).
- Adviser to Grupo Financiero Scotiabank Inverlat, S.A. and President of its Risk and Auditing Committees (1999-2006).
- Head of the Instituto Tecnológico Autónomo de México (ITAM) Department of Law (2004-2005).
- Director of the ITAM Center for Private Law (1999-2006).
- Director General of Banco Nacional de México, S.A. (1996-1997).
- Deputy Director General of Banco de México (1990-1994).
- Director of Central Bank Regulations of Banco de México (1985-1990).

Professional experience

- Columnist of newspaper Reforma (1998-2006).
- Member of the Governing Board of the National Banking and Securities Commission and of the National Insurance and Sureties Commission; Advisor to four banks, and Vice President of the Mexican Bankers' Association.
- Deputy Director General and Director General of Banco Nacional de México, S.A. (1994-1998).
- Worked at Banco de México in various positions from 1973 to 1994. His last position was Deputy Director General.

Teaching

- Full-time Professor at the ITAM of various core subjects on Obligations, Contracts, and Rules and Regulations of Mexico's Financial System.
- Lecturer at the Escuela Libre de Derecho and at the Universidad Panamericana, and at many conferences on banking, monetary and foreign exchange issues.

Other activities

- Special Commissioner in the privatization of insurance company Aseguradora Hidalgo, S.A.
- Coordinator of the working group in charge of preparing the constitutional reform to grant autonomy to Banco de México and to pass Banco de México's governing law.