

EVERARDO ELIZONDO

Former Deputy Governor, Banco de México

Everardo Elizondo Almaguer (Linares, Nuevo León, 1943).

B.A. in Economics, Universidad Autónoma de Nuevo León (UANL).

M.Sc. and Ph.D. candidate in Economics from the University of Wisconsin (Madison).

International Tax Program, Harvard Law School.

Manager, Economic Studies Department. Compañía General de Aceptaciones-Grupo Serfín.

Director of Economic Studies of Grupo Industrial Alfa.

Director, Index, Economía Aplicada, S.A.

Director of Economic Research, Grupo Financiero Bancomer, S.A.

Deputy Governor, Banco de México.

Founder and Dean of the Graduate School of the Economics Faculty of the UANL.

Professor of several economic topics at the Economics Faculty of the UANL and the School of Economics and the Graduate School of the Instituto Tecnológico y de Estudios Superiores de Monterrey (ITESM).

Visiting Researcher at the Institute of Latin American Studies in the University of Texas (Austin).

Regular columnist at the newspapers El Norte and Reforma.

Member of the Board of Directors of Compañía Minera Autlán, San Luis Corporación, Grupo Senda and Grupo Financiero Banorte. Member of the External Consultative Council of the UANL and of the Consultative Council of Coca Cola-FEMSA.

Commended by the UANL with the Distinguished Professional Service Award, granted for the first time to a graduate from the Economics Faculty.

Professor of Microeconomics in the Graduate School of Public Administration of the ITESM, Monterrey campus, and of Monetary Policy and Theory in the School of Economics of this institution.